35 As noted above, the rules framed by the C & M Station refer to Carts carrying luggage or goods [illegible] & these are framed under the C & M Station Rural laws. Our Rural Regulation does not provide for this being done.

36 The rules regulating the Carriages which include such a description of Carriages do not contain provisions at present for regulating fares of Carts carrying luggage only. It seems however, rules may be framed if it is considered necessary to give effect to the rates prescribed by the C & M Station in regard to this description of Public Conveyance. The Rules are not in force of any such Section at present.

EZ The question of any amendment to Section 48 of the Municipal Regulation does not seem to arise at all, as the Municipal Council of Bangalore can under the Public Conveyance Regulation frame necessary rules in that matter & in the rules framed by them they have fixed the fees for licenses sufficiently high. ~~The rates for engines drawn by the Motor Conveyances are not fixed by rules.~~ The fees for licenses on the general description of carts provide so as to include men & luggage. If considered necessary the Municipal Council may be asked to fix fees separately for men & luggage, & that the fees for the latter be made equal to those adopted in the Cart Station Rules.
